Dukakis, O'Neill Make Triumphant Return To Western Massachusetts

A.C.O. Community Center For Town?

By Pat Affleck

Agawam Citizens Organization, Inc. will discuss "A Community Center for Agawam" at the Second Annual Cookout and membership meeting at 5 p.m. Saturday, September 28 at the West Springfield Fish and Game Club, 329 Garden Street, Feeding Hills.

The Second Annual Cookout will begin at 5:00 p.m. with a "Happy Hour" featuring Fred Drew's hospitable "Pumpkin Punch" which proved such a success last year.

There will be hamburgs, hot dogs with all the fixin's and home baked desserts. All members and directors are urged to attend; families and friends are cordially invited. Children will enjoy the cookout portion; there will be time to get them home before our scheduled 7:30 p.m. business meeting and program part of the event.

Although there will be no specific charge for the cookout and Happy Hour, donations will be accepted to help defray a portion of the costs. As there are both inside and outside facilities, the meeting will be held rain or shine.

"A Community Center for Agawam" is the topic for what should be a most stimulating and exciting meeting. Considerable interest has already been aroused; we solicit your discussion and opinions.

A leader from a nearby community center and a representative from its Board of Directors will be present to tell us how they got started, whom they serve, how they are supported, their programs, their problems.

A.C.O. needs the serious consideration of all citizens of Agawam.

As this is the first membership meeting of the season and the only one before our Annual Meeting in November, there is need of a short business meeting to update important A.C.O. activities, action on some proposed bylaw changes, and plans for the coming year.

For you who have complained about Sunday meetings, here is one for Saturday! (Meetings during the week didn't work out either!)

A real good cookout, "Pumpkin Punch", together with an exceptionally interesting program should make this event worth attending.

The telephone committee will be in touch with you during the week. We need an estimate of how many will attend.

The committee planning the event consists of: Miss Marion Collins, Mary and Fred Drew, Mrs. Rosemarie Juliano, and Brady Snyder.

Mike Dukakis

Pledge To End Era Of Excuses

Democratic candidate for the Greater Springfield Governor Michael Dukakis, Westfield Labor Council.

"Good intentions from our leaders," Dukakis told the crowd, "are not enough. It is time Massachusetts had a state government judged by its accomplishments rather than the quality of its excuses."

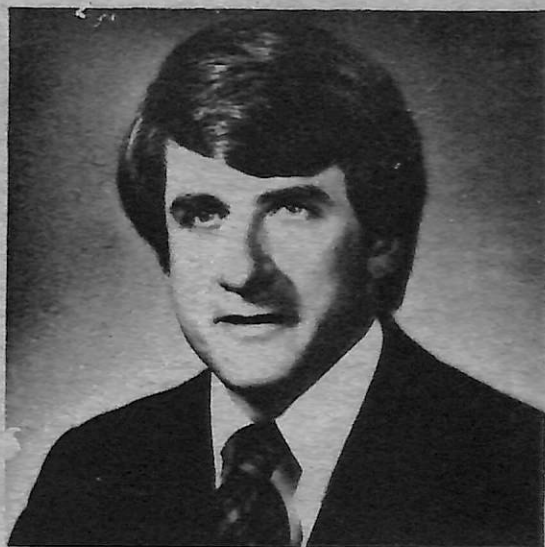

With Tom O'Neill, his runningmate for Lt. Governor, standing by his side, Dukakis told area supporters: "Our team will be an aggressive administration -- one that is not afraid to take bold steps to combat the problems we face."

Numerous Springfield area supporters of both Dukakis and O'Neill were among the several hundred area citizens attending a reception Saturday at American Legion

"We are constantly told that our problems result from factors well beyond our control," Dukakis continued, "and that Massachusetts is helpless to do anything."

"Well, I don't believe that," he said. "The task of leadership is not to sit idly by and wring its hands in despair, but to take aggressive steps in overcoming problems."

Dukakis and O'Neill, joined by their wives, Kitty and Pioneer Valley Soccer League, especially when the case of Division I schools playing Division III schools occurs. "But why should the league change when teams like the Terriers and Chicopee can feast on the smaller squads?" Willard declared.

Willard also told the Citizen he understands the Holyoke Soccer Coach took a survey on the win-loss record between Division I and III schools over the last five or six years of competition. "The result was something like 70 wins for Division I; and three for Division III teams," Willard said. That figure certainly speaks for itself.

The Brownie soccer mentor believes the core of the problem lies in the fact that communities like West Side, Ludlow, and Chicopee start their youth at any early age playing soccer. "The difference in material is fantastic," noted Willard. "The kids in West Side are far ahead of our kids in the terms of playing experience."

This fall Willard has a crop of fine sophomore booters which includes Brett Coughlin, Tim Bassett, Norman Duquette, and John Brown. "But compared to West Side's younger players our sophomores are very inexperienced," Willard analyzed. "The caliber of play in West Side is unbelievable." To combat rival soccer superiority, Agawam has only recently begun youth soccer programs, and last fall a freshman squad was added. Obviously it will take time before Agawam catches many Division I schools, but with these new programs in full flight, a bright future for Brownie soccer seems in sight.

Nonetheless the Brownies under Willard have still produced a number of outstanding stars. The most notable of recent years includes Wayne Gates, Doug Janick, Tom Depalo, Gary Webster, and Mike Bodurtha. The problem for Willard has been banding an entire squad of these fine performers together in the same season.

Soccer Coach Walter Willard has suffered through some long, tough, fall campaigns in his seven seasons at Agawam, but each year the soccer program is steadily improving.

The day will pass of West Side, Ludlow and Chicopee soccer domination, and Agawam's will come.

WNEC

SOCCER SCHEDULE

Western New England College will play its most ambitious soccer schedule in school history, including two tournaments and 16 regular season games, according to WNEC Director of Athletics, Eric Geldart, Jr.

The 1974 WNEC booters open the year with a Pre-Season Tourney at Westfield State, including, besides the host school, A.I.C. and Springfield College. WNEC will also participate in the New Hampshire College Tournament October 25-26. Included on the schedule will be matches with five schools who participated in post-season tournament play a year ago, including Federal City College, Keene State, and Westfield State.

The full schedule is as follows: Sept. 13-14, Westfield State Pre-Season Tourney; Sept. 21, Sacred Heart College; Sept. 23, Salem State College; Sept. 25, at Windham College; Sept. 28, Keene State College; Oct. 2, at North Adams State College; Oct. 5, Federal City College.

Also, Oct. 9, New Hampshire College; Oct. 12, American International College; Oct. 15, at Eastern Connecticut State College; Oct. 17, Roger Williams College; Oct. 19, at Bryant College; Oct. 21, at Bentley College; Oct. 25-26, at New Hampshire College Tourney; Oct. 30, at Westfield State College; Nov. 2, at Eastern Nazarene College.

Longmeadow Booters Slash Brownies

Agawam's soccer fortunes in their last two contests can be termed anything but growing.

The Brownies have lost back to back games by identical 8-0 scores, with the latest coming at the feet of Longmeadow September 20.

Agawam Coach Walter Willard, who used two goalies during Longmeadow's onslaught, stated "Neither one of them had much of a chance. They had too many fast breaks. Our defense was just shoddy." Willard commented that he could not think of one of his players who played well at all.

Powerful West Side dealt Agawam the first of their two 8-0 beatings on September 16 in Agawam. West Side used numerous substitutions in their seige of the Brownie's goal. Both squads played with the typical intensity Agawam West Side contests breed; fast action with plenty of body contact. Though Agawam was far behind during most of the afternoon, they refused to give an inch to their arch-rivals.

"West Side is the best team in New England," Willard claimed. "We just fell on our faces against them," he added. "We played well against Comp, but West Side just overwhelmed us." The booters record has fallen to 0-3-1 as of September 23.

Women's Club 2nd Annual Craft Show

Agawam Trimmed In AA Opener, 30-6

Defending AA Conference Champions Chicopee Comp 10 to Comp's 39 before Quinn LeClerc said. "But we were soured Agawam's league traffic jam around the Comp quit. They stayed right in opener with a convincing 30-6 victory over the Brownies last Friday night at Szot Park "Lake" in Chicopee.

Over 3,000 faithful Brownie and Colt fans braved heavy downpours which started minutes before the opening kickoff and lasted well into the second half. Agawam received an early break in the first minutes of play when a Comp back returned a Tommy Quinn punt for what appeared to be a touchdown, but was called back due to a Colt blocker guilty of clipping. This gave the Brownies an early shoe of adrenalin.

As the rain continued, the pigskin became extremely slippery and both defenses dug in causing numerous turnovers. Comp threw the ball away twice as did the Brownies, but Agawam's second fumble proved costly. Comp recovered the mishap on the Brownie nine, and two plays later drew the game's first blood midway in the second stanza. Comp's all Western Mass-wonder boy Garry Masse then passed for their opponents in the second the extra two, giving Comp an 8-0 advantage.

Relying mainly on the power running of junior fullback Skip Stuart and pinpoint passing of senior QB Tommy Quinn, Agawam LeClerc was disappointed began their most sustained drive of the first half. Agawam drove from their own

10 to Comp's 39 before Quinn LeClerc said. "But we were soured Agawam's league traffic jam around the Comp quit. They stayed right in opener with a convincing 30-6 victory over the Brownies last Friday night at Szot Park "Lake" in Chicopee.

several times before falling into the hands of a Comp defender who was flat on his back. The theft halted Agawam's scoring threat. But in the second half, Comp tacked on 22 points to put the mud out of reach. Agawam had pulled within 16-6 following a nine yard aerial strike from Quinn to Stuart in the third period, but that was receiver position D'Alma has been utilized as a kickoff and punt returner. "He's only a sophomore but he is good under pressure," LeClerc added.

Against Wahconah September 13 it was just a case of Wahconah jumping out to a quick 14-0 margin in the first quarter forcing Agawam to play catch up ball.

Each of Wahconah's scores came on nifty TD chaunts of 21 ball away twice as did the and 29 yards. Agawam was caught off early, but they fought back all the way through. Tommy Quinn scored a smart seven yard rollout in the wanning moments of the second stanza.

The Brownies outplayed their opponents in the second half, but they could not chalk up the points. Wahconah displayed a fine ground assault all afternoon, although turning the ball over seven times by way of fumbles.

Next Brownie clash comes on Saturday September 28 against yet another AA powerhouse, John Gilligan's Holyoke Purple Knights at McKenzie Stadium in the Paper City.

Long Road For LeClerc And Agawam

When former Chicago Bear Roger LeClerc was appointed head coach of Agawam football last January 28, he immediately stepped into one of Agawam's "hot seats"

After two outings at the Brownie helm, LeClerc's charges were edged 14-8 by Wahconah in their opener, and then a 30-6 mudbath beating by defending AA Conference champ Chicopee Comp last Friday night. Already "Sunday morning quarterbacks", (Brownie fans) have begun to second guess the Agawam coach.

Before fans can pass any type of judgement on Coach LeClerc, he needs some time for his new system to take affect. Due to graduation last June, Brownie football lost such talented players as Shawn Sullivan, Dave Mason, Joe Ramah, Jeff Locke, Pete Longhi, and a host of others. Naturally when a program loses such quality personnel the following years' squad will be hurt in terms of depth and experience.

This fall LeClerc is using many younger, inexperienced players, which may have given the impression he is rebuilding for the future. But the Agawam mentor totally disagrees with this belief. "I'm playing the best players I have," LeClerc said. "I'm playing a senior quarterback who's in his first year at that position. My belief is play the best."

LeClerc's coaching system this fall has been one of emphasizing that players think for themselves, and to have a lot of fun playing football. LeClerc even allows Tommy Quinn to call his own game at quarterback. "It's their game, so let them call it," LeClerc remarked. "A quarterback has to learn to make his own decisions. He's not going to learn by us sending in plays."

LeClerc's enthusiasm has rubbed off on all his players. The general feeling among his troops toward their new coach is one of deep respect and admiration. Brownie practice sessions are filled with spirit and plenty of enthusiastic hard work. LeClerc has especially been pleased with the players willingness to learn. "We're having fun out there," he said proudly.

As for his coaching staff, LeClerc could not be more pleased with the way they have fit into his new system. "Coaches (Joe) Modzelewski, (Howie) Murphy, and (Wayne) Morse fit in just fine," LeClerc commented. "They have been a big help to me. It's been a pleasure to work up here."

About the only bit of disappointment for LeClerc is the fact his team has not executed the way he had hoped. "It's not what I'm used to," LeClerc said. "I haven't worked with high school kids in a long time. I haven't anything to compare them to except a pro." But Agawam's first year coach feels the proper execution will come in time. "We have good football players with a lot of potential," he said.

Agawam Football, 1974 is a new coach who has generated much excitement among his players.

LeClerc is the teacher with students who wish to learn. And at the same time both LeClerc and his crew are having one fine time in the process.

For most of us, rising prices mean less of some things, perhaps curtailment or substitution of others, but not deprivation in any real sense.

But for others—and there are thousands of them—a curtailment of the 55 services supported by your contributions to the United Way would mean an ever-deepening void from which there is no escape.
